

Do you have a financial question? Would you like to be on TV?

The Wealthy Life is looking for guests for Season Two that would like some guidance from financial guru Sybil Verch. Here are a few of the topics that we are interested in:

What's Your Number? How much money do you need to Retire? – Curious about when you can retire? Worried about if you have enough money to retire? Come on the show and discuss your retirement options.

Student Loan Debt – Are you a student struggling with student loans? Are you considering post-secondary education and what to know if taking out a loan is the best thing for you? Are you parents of a University student wondering if you should help pay off your son or daughters debt?

Blended Family Finances (To Blend or Not) – Are you a blended family wondering if you should combine your finances? Have you already blended your finances and now you are in financial difficulties? Do you keep your finances separate but find that it isn't working for your new family? Let Sybil help you come up with a working financial strategy for your family.

Cross Border – Do you have dual citizenship and have to pay taxes in both Canada and the US? Are you a snowbird that has spent too much time in the US and now have to file US taxes? Do you own property in the US?

5 Steps to Financial Control – Want to take control of your finances but don't know how? Let Sybil guide you through the process.

Losing your Spouse – Have you lost your spouse due to death or divorce and need some financial guidance?

Pet Insurance – Do you have a pet or are you considering getting a pet? Wondering if pet insurance is the right thing for you?

Picking an Executor or Power of Attorney – Wondering who you should pick to execute your last wishes? Who should have control over your decisions if you can't make them for yourself? Should you pick a family member or a friend?

Get out of Debt – Struggling to get out of debt? Not sure if what you are doing is working?

Small Business Owner – Do you own a small business? Do you need some financial guidance? Ask Sybil your questions to help you grow your business.

Choosing Where to Live in Retirement – Are you getting close to retirement? Wondering where you should live? Can you afford to retire in Canada or are you considering moving to somewhere cheaper?

For more information or to apply send your inquiries to info@thewealthylife.com

"Helping Canadians Make Smart Financial Decisions to Make the Most of What They Have."